Registration and Weigh-ins are separated by grade. The Brute adidas Nationals is an event where first through twelfth graders can compete against their own grade level to stake their claims as the best in the country in folkstyle wrestling.

One Wrestler from each Division in each weight class will be Crowned National Champion

The top 8 place finishers from each division in each weight class will receive awards, and Brute All-American Status Certificates

Each finalist will receive a FREE custom designed Brute singlet to wear for the finals. Each finalist's coach will receive a FREE adidas coaching shirt to wear for the finals.

An "Outstanding Wrestler" award will be presented for each Grade Division

All National Champions will receive an adidas watch (grades 9-12) or custom jacket (grades 1-8)

The format will be a traditional bracket system tournament. Each wrestler is guaranteed a minimum of two matches.

NOTE It is the responsibility of the coach/parent/wrestler to check with your state rules committee regarding eligibility rules when participating in a National High School folkstyle tournament. Brute does NOT claim this to be a National High School Championship event or require wrestler's to compete in a pre-qualifying event.
